

Julie Carver (GeolE 86)

Ms. Julie Carver is the Founding Principal of Congruent Environmental Strategies, a firm specializing in providing strategic environmental consulting and management services for the redevelopment of environmentally-impaired properties in a sustainable manner.

Prior to starting her own company, Ms. Carver worked for 20 years in executive and senior level management positions for several international engineering firms leading cross-functional programs and teams focused on the beneficial reuse of brownfields and major asset redevelopment sites. .

Carver holds a bachelor's degree. in geological engineering from South Dakota School of Mines and Technology, a master's degree in environmental science & engineering from the Colorado School of Mines, and is a registered professional engineer.

Ms. Carver and her husband, who is also a SD Mines graduate, live in Denver, Colorado.